October Program

Habitat for Humanity – Thursday, Oct. 28, 12 noon, Upstairs at the Library

We all know a little about Habitat for Humanity. We've all seen the newspaper photos and TV news coverage of happy new homeowners accepting the keys to a new home built by volunteer labor. Maybe you've thought how lucky the new owner is or considered volunteering on the next house.

Come hear the story of Habitat for Humanity in Bartlesville since it began in 1987 and meet a lucky homeowner (or two) of the 50 homes that have been built here in the past 23 years.

You'll hear how interest-free mortgage plus sweat equity plus volunteer labor equal home ownership for citizens who could not otherwise qualify for the experience.

Bring your own sack lunch. Drinks will be provided.

Book Club – November Meeting

Sunday November 7 at 3:00 pm

The book club will be reading "Let the Great World Spin" by Colum McCann and will be meeting Sunday November 7, 2010 at 3pm at Carol and Cassie Nagel's (XXX) for discussion.

Women's Network Directories

The 2010-2011 directory is nearing completion and is projected to be available at the October Program Meeting, Thursday October 28, 12 noon at the Bartlesville Library. Those who are unable to pick their copy up at that time will receive it by mail.

Thanks to all who provided information, gathered information and edited this yearbook.
