Women's Network 30th Birthday Party – Follow Up

The birthday party was a huge success. Jan Dreiling combined her comments and memories with Harriet Guthrie's written memories to weave the story of Women's Network through the past 30 years. Harriet attended by Skype and many of the past presidents were in attendance and contributed their stories (and versions) to the narrative.

Special thanks to all who picked up, set up, cleaned up and carried out... Including:

Joan Dreisker, Jan Dreiling, Harriet Guthrie, Judy and Maurice Buys, Becky Wallace, Linda Matthews, Carol Nagel, Cassie Nagel, Rhonda Redden, Pat Netzer, Jerry Fries, Julie Freeman, Ann Cleary, Tracey Brong... and all the folks at St Luke's who pitched in to make this happen. There were many more helping and I apologize if I have missed anyone.

Book Club – Sunday November 6

We will be meeting Sunday November 6 at 3:00pm at Rhonda Redden's. We are reading "Innocent Traitor" by Alison Weir. It is the story of Lady Jane Grey who was executed by Mary Tudor. Rhonda lives at XXX (It's a streamline deco house with awnings and a wrap around white deck on the round part of the house at XXX). If you have trouble locating it her cell is: XXX.
