November Program – Thursday November 17th

Maureen Forsythe, a Master Gardener & Herbalist will speak on “Cooking with Herbs and Foods of the Thanksgiving of the 1620 Pilgrims.” The lecture and tasting will be Thursday, November 17, at 12 Noon at MUTUAL Girls Club Dining Room Area, 321 S. Penn. The Pilgrims sailed from Holland and England to the Massachusetts Cape Cod Bay shore in November. The speaker will cover the differences of herb definitions in those times and how they were used for preservatives and flavor enhancers. Some herbs/seeds they would have brought with them and others offered from the Wampanoag tribes. Foods (vegetables) of the time will be covered as well.

December – Holiday Party – Friday December 16, 7pm at St Luke's Episcopal Church, Metcalf Hall

Wine and hors d'oeuvres followed by dinner, dessert and musical entertainment. Cost will be $15.00 and your reservation check can be mailed to: Women's network, PO Box 417, Bartlesville, OK, 74005. We are asking the membership to bring a favorite dessert to share. Please make reservations so we can have an accurate count for the dinner. More details to follow next month!

Book Club – Sunday November 13 – Meeting postponed from Nov 6

We will be meeting Sunday November 13 at 3:00pm at Rhonda Redden's. We are reading “Innocent Traitor” by Alison Weir. It is the story of Lady Jane Grey who was executed by Mary Tudor. Rhonda lives at XXX (It's a streamline deco house with awnings and a wrap around white deck on the round part of the house at XXX). If you have trouble locating it her cell is: XXX. If you are interested in reading the December selection please email Rhonda for the title and author (XXX).
